Dated : 01st February, 2021

Dear Sir,

As you are already aware, the Department of Legal Affairs has issued O.M. dated 31.03.2020, circulating the guidelines for Administrative Mechanism for Resolution of Disputes (AMRD) (copy enclosed). The Mechanism applies to dispute(s) other than those related to taxation, between Central Government Ministries/Departments inter se and between Central Government Ministries/Departments and other Ministries/Departments/Organisation(s)/ Subordinate/ Attached Offices/Autonomous and Statutory Bodies, etc., under their administrative supervision/control.

2. The Organisation(s)/Subordinate/Attached Offices/Autonomous and Statutory Bodies, etc., under the administrative supervision/control of the Ministries/Departments need to be sensitized to invoke the AMRD mechanism to resolve the disputes other than taxation to reduce the burden of cases on courts as well as to make an effort to amicably settle the cases.

3. I shall be grateful, if the Ministries/Departments forward the details of such disputes which fall within the ambit and scope of the mechanism for being resolved through AMRD and initiate necessary action for invoking the same.

With warm regards,

Secy. (D)
AS (D)

Yours sincerely,

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Subject: Settlement of disputes other than taxation between Government Ministries / Departments inter se and between Government Ministries / Departments and other Ministries / Departments / Organisation(s) – Administrative Mechanism for Resolution of Disputes (AMRD).

Instructions have been issued to Ministries / Departments of the Governments of India, in the past to avoid inter-departmental litigations in any Court of law, including by all CPSEs / Boards / Authorities, etc., under their Administrative control and to resolve the same amicably or through Arbitration.

2. In order to provide for an institutionalized mechanism for resolution of such disputes, Secretary, Department of Legal Affairs has vide DO letter No. 332619/338367/LS/2019 dt. 28th February, 2020 (copy enclosed) advised all Secretaries to the Government of India that the existing Administrative Mechanism for Resolution of Commercial Disputes (AMRCD), currently applicable to commercial disputes between CPSEs inter se and also between CPSEs and Government Departments / Organisations, shall stand extended for resolution of disputes other than taxation, between Ministries / Departments inter se and between Ministries / Departments and other Government Ministries / Departments / Subordinate / Attached offices / Autonomous and Statutory Bodies under their administrative supervision control. Details of the new mechanism, namely, Administrative Mechanism for Resolution of Disputes (AMRD), are hereby outlined for guidance.

3. Applicability

AMRD shall apply to any/all dispute(s), other than those related to taxation, between Central Government Ministries / Departments inter se and between Central Government Ministries / Departments and other Ministries

4. Structure

- (i) Disputes, other than taxation, shall be referred at the First level (tier), to a Committee comprising of Secretaries of the Administrative Ministries / Departments to which the disputing Parties belong and Secretary, D/o Legal Affairs;
- (ii) The Joint Secretaries (JSs) / Financial Advisors (FAs) (for commercial disputes) of the two concerned Administrative Ministries / Departments may represent the issues, related to the dispute in question, before the Committee.
- (iii) In case the two disputing parties belong to the same Ministry / Department, the above Committee may comprise of the Secretary of the administrative Ministry / Department concerned and Secretary, D/o Legal Affairs. Secretary, Department of Public Enterprises may be invited in case the dispute pertains to a CPSE.
- (iv) The resolution of such disputes shall be by unanimous decision of the Committee.
- (v) In case the dispute remains unresolved after consideration by the Committee, it will be referred at the Second level (tier), to the Cabinet Secretary, whose decision will be final and binding on all concerned.

5. Procedure

- (i) At the First level (tier), the claiming party (Claimant) may be represented, before the Committee, by the JS / FA of the administrative Ministry / Department. The Secretary of administrative Ministry / Department of claiming party will inform in writing the details of the dispute, to the Secretary of administrative Ministry / Department of responding party (Respondent) and Secretary, D/o Legal Affairs and request for convening a meeting. Thereafter meetings may be held to examine the facts and resolve the dispute on merit. The JSs / FAs of the concerned administrative Ministries / Departments will represent the issues, related to the dispute in question, before the above Committee. After the Committee arrives at a decision, it shall be signed by the members of the Committee. A copy of the decision will be communicated by the Secretary of the administrative Ministry / Department of the claiming party to members of the Committee and to each party to the dispute for implementation.

(ii) The Committee of Secretaries at the First level (tier) shall finalise its decision within 3 months after having received the reference/notice in writing regarding the dispute from the concerned aggrieved party.

6. Appeal

Any party aggrieved with the decision of the Committee at the First level (tier) may prefer an appeal before the Cabinet Secretary at the Second level (tier) within 15 days from the date of receipt of decision of the Committee at the First level, whose decision will be final and binding on all concerned.

7. All administrative Ministries / Departments are requested to bring these guidelines to the notice of all Authorities / Boards / Subordinate / Attached Offices / Autonomous and Statutory Bodies, etc., under their administrative supervision/control for strict compliance.

8. This issues with the approval of the Competent Authority.
