1. CIRCOT, Mumbai

Activity : Tourist Spots : Cleanliness drive at Five Gardens along with Guru Nanak Khalsa College, Matunga Student.

As a part of the implementation of the Swachhata Hi Seva campaign, cleanliness drive conducted by all staff members of ICAR-CIRCOT along with Students from Guru Nanak Khalsa College, Matunga students at Five Gardens, Wadala.

2. IASRI, New Delhi

As a part of the ongoing Swachhata Pakhwada (17th September – 2nd October 2025), a special health and hygiene initiative was organized on 24th September, 2025 for the safai karamcharis of ICAR–IASRI.

The safai karamcharis, who play a vital role in maintaining the cleanliness and sanitation of the Institute, were taken for a medical check-up at the Mohalla Clinic. The health camp included basic health examinations and general medical consultation. Preventive health advice on nutrition, hygiene practices, and lifestyle was also provided to the participants.

This initiative not only ensured the well-being of the safai karamcharis but also highlighted the Institute's commitment to the holistic objectives of Swachhata Pakhwada—cleanliness with health, hygiene, and dignity for all. The activity also reinforced the importance of preventive health care for those who contribute directly to the cleanliness and upkeep of the Institute.

The safai karamcharis expressed their gratitude for this initiative, which helped in creating awareness about regular health check-ups and personal hygiene.

3. CIPHET, Ludhiana

Under the Swachhta hi Sewa, a Swachhata drive was conducted in the surrounding areas of Shri Govind Godham and the Gaushala. The team members participated in the activity, collecting and disposing of plastics, packaging materials, and cattle feed littered on roads and in the Gaushala area. The team also motivated community members to maintain clean and hygienic surroundings.

4. NINFET, Kolkata

As part of the Swachhta Hi Seva 2025 being observed from September 17 to October 02, 2025, ICAR-NINFET organized a quiz competition on 24.09.2025 for all staff members. The event aimed to promote awareness on cleanliness and related social issues while encouraging active staff participation.

A total of 50 staff members, representing various categories and departments, enthusiastically took part in the competition. The quiz covered a wide range of topics including Swachh Bharat Abhiyan, current affairs, sports, politics, and more. The competition was conducted in an engaging and interactive manner, and the atmosphere remained energetic throughout the event. Participants displayed great enthusiasm and team spirit. Prizes were distributed on the spot to the winners, which added to the excitement and motivation among the participants. The event concluded on a high note, with participants expressing their appreciation for the initiative. The quiz competition not only tested general awareness but also reinforced the core message of cleanliness and civic responsibility under the Swachhta Hi Seva campaign.

5. CIAE, Bhopal

As part of the nationwide Swachhata Hi Seva (SHS) 2025 campaign, the ICAR-Central Institute of Agricultural Engineering (CIAE), Regional Station, Coimbatore, organized a special cleanliness and public awareness programme on 24th September 2025. The event took place at the historic Perur Temple, in collaboration with Thavathiru Santhalinga Adigalar Arts, Science, and Tamil College, Perur.

The programme witnessed enthusiastic participation from 30 undergraduate students, 2 faculty members, and 25 staff members from CIAE RS. The primary objective of the initiative was to promote cleanliness, environmental hygiene, and awareness on sustainable waste management practices among the general public, students, and visitors. As part of the campaign, joint teams from CIAE and the college undertook various cleanliness activities in and around the temple premises. This included removal of plastic waste, sweeping of pathways, collection and disposal of dry leaves, and pruning of overgrown vegetation, thereby significantly improving the temple's surroundings.

A key highlight of the event was a live demonstration on vermicomposting conducted by CIAE RS experts. Participants learned about converting organic waste into compost using earthworms and its applications in homes and institutions. The demonstration drew attention from temple visitors, shopkeepers, and local residents, effectively spreading awareness on solid waste management, waste segregation, and eco-friendly practices. Informative leaflets were distributed to the public, encouraging sustainable waste disposal habits. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks, and temple authorities and community members expressed appreciation for the initiative. Additionally, an awareness procession was carried out around the temple premises, where participants held placards promoting cleanliness messages. Informative leaflets were distributed to the general public, encouraging the adoption of environmentally responsible practices.

5. Report on Swachhta hi Seva from 17.09.2025 to 02.10.2025 in respect of ICAR-CRIJAF, Barrackpore, Kolkata

Activity: Tourist spots, religious and spiritual places

As part of Swachhta Hi Seva-2025 with the theme Swachhotsav- a programme was conducted at Kali Mandir (temple), Ganeshpur, Suryapur, North-24, Paraganas on 24th September, 2025 to promote cleanliness, environmental awareness, and community responsibility. The focus of the drive was to ensure the cleanliness of the temple premises and surrounding areas while encouraging local residents to adopt hygienic practices. The drive was spearheaded by temple management committee in collaboration with ICAR-Central Research Institute for Jute and Allied Fibres, Barrackpore. ICAR-CRIJAF staff interacted and educated participants on the importance of cleanliness, followed by a speech from the temple secretary on its relevance in daily life. The drive was a resounding success, enhancing the temple's cleanliness and fostering a stronger sense of community responsibility. This initiative underscored the power of combining religious guidance with civic responsibility to ensure sustainable environmental practices as religious leaders play a pivotal role, using their influence, to blend spiritual teachings with environmental awareness, inspiring long-term commitment to cleanliness.

Cleanliness Drive at Tourist and Religious Places under #SHS2025

ICAR - CCARI, Goa organised a cleanliness drive at tourist and religious places under the Swachhta Hi Seva 2025 campaign with 'Swachhotsav' theme on 24th September. The drive aimed to create awareness among visitors and the general public on the importance of keeping heritage and public spaces clean and litter-free. The cleanliness activity was conducted at the UNESCO World Heritage Site - the Old Goa Church premises, and at the Mahatma Gandhi Circle, locations that attract a large number of tourists and local residents. Institute staff participated in removing litter, plastic waste and transported the garbage from the surroundings.

Officials from CCARI shared messages on responsible tourism and sustainable waste management. This initiative not only improved the appearance of these prominent public spaces but also sensitised visitors about their shared responsibility in maintaining the sacredness and cleanliness of heritage and tourist sites.

6. ICAR-Indian Institute of Soil Science, Bhopal

Date	Activity: Tourist Spots, Religious & Spiritual Places- cleanliness drives at Tarawali Mandir, Bhopal

24.09.2025	As part of the nationwide ‘Swachhata Hi Seva’ (SHS) campaign and in alignment with the vision of a Clean and Green India, the ICAR-Indian Institute of Soil Science (ICAR-IISS), Bhopal organized a cleanliness drive at Tarawali Mandir, Bhopal on 24th September, 2025. The cleanliness drive was conducted under the valuable guidance of Dr. M. Mohanty, Director, ICAR-IISS, Bhopal. During the program, the staff members of the Institute actively participated in cleaning the premises and the surrounding areas of the temple, thereby contributing to the maintenance of hygiene and sanitation. In addition to the physical cleaning activity, the participants also interacted with the visitors at the temple and sensitized them about the importance of cleanliness, proper waste disposal, and the larger objectives of the ‘Swachhata Hi Seva’ campaign. The initiative not only created awareness among the local community but also reinforced the Institute’s commitment towards promoting sustainable practices and supporting the national mission of a Clean and Green India.
